

Montgomery Planning

Historic Preservation Office

4/22/2020

Charles F.R. Ogilby House

National Register of Historic Places Nomination

Outline

- Certified Local Government Involvement in the NR Nomination Process
- National Register Criteria for Evaluation
- Site & Architectural Description
- Arthur B. Heaton
- Evaluation & Recommendation

CLG Involvement in the NR Process

1) National Register nominations are submitted to the Maryland Historical Trust

2) Eligible nominations are forwarded to the Certified Local Government (CLG)

3) The HPC makes a recommendation for or against listing to the NR based on whether the nomination meets NR criteria for eligibility

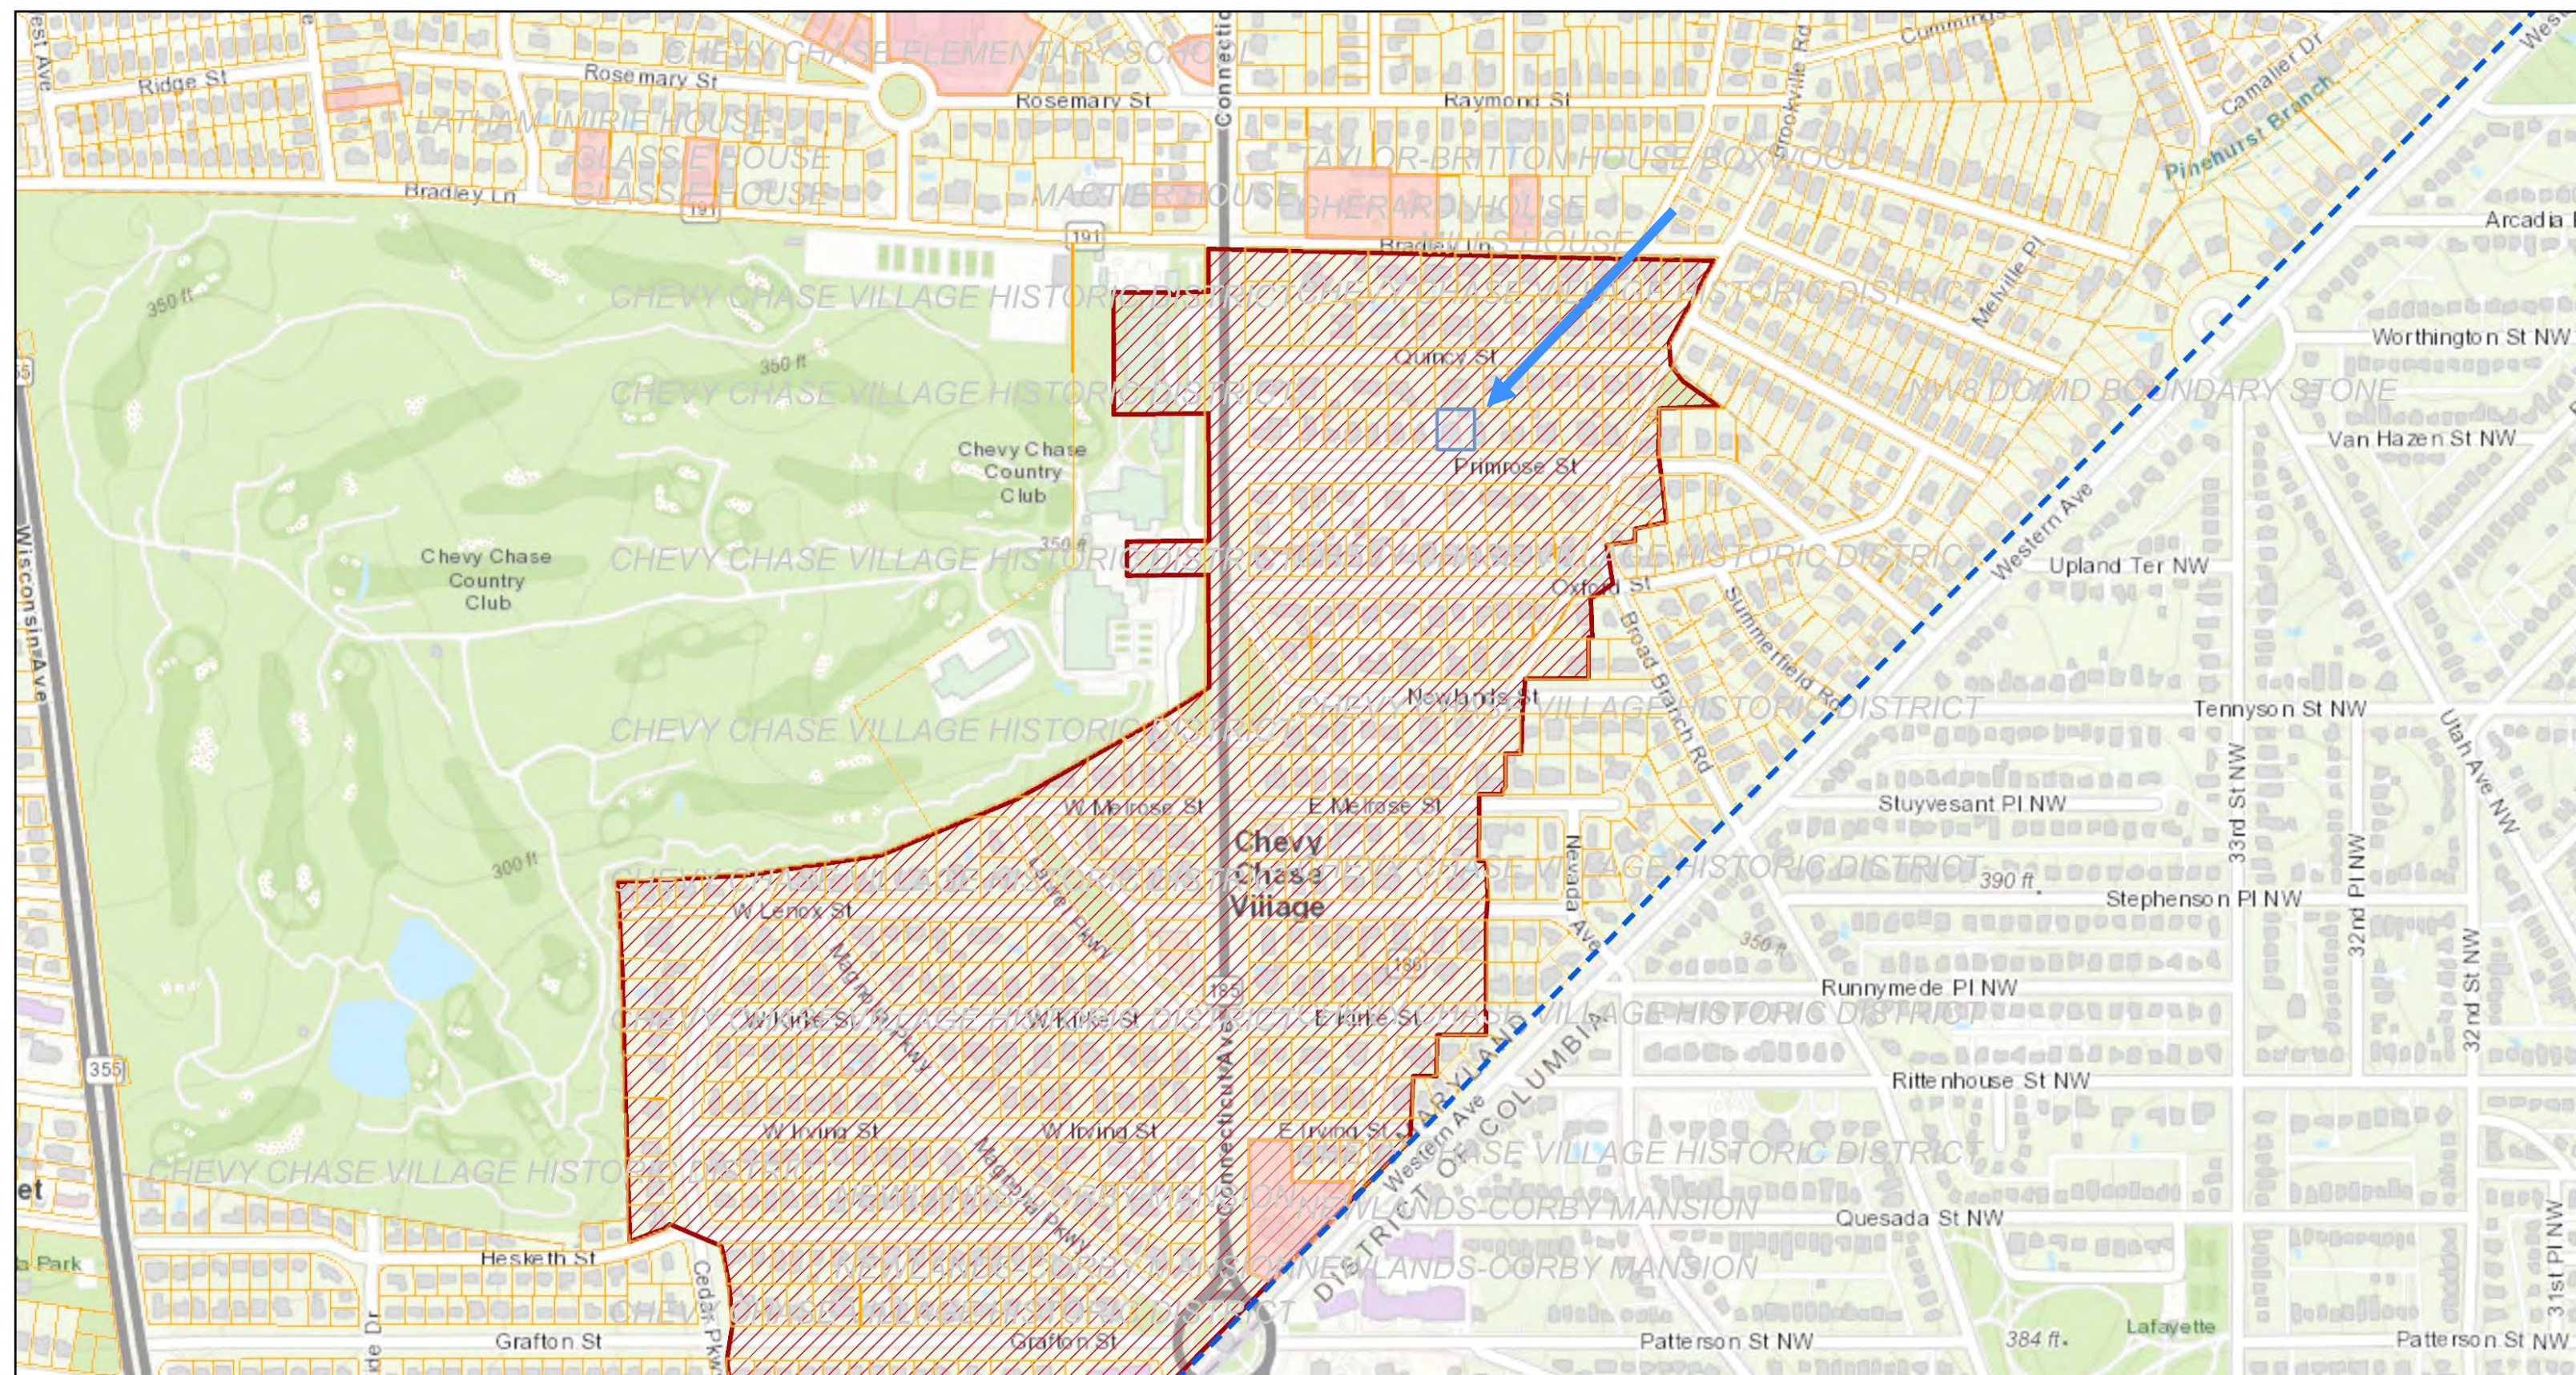

4) The HPC's action is forwarded to the Chief Elected Officer (County Executive) via the CLG/NR Recommendation Form

5) Within 30 days, the CEO indicates their recommendation and forwards the completed Recommendation Form to MHT to complete the local review process

National Register Criteria for Evaluation

- A) Associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of our history
- B) Associated with the lives of persons significant in our past
- C) Embody the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction, or that represent the work of a master, or that possess high artistic values
- D) Have yielded or are likely to yield information important in prehistory or history

Façade (South Elevation)

West
Elevation

East Elevation

North Elevation

Arthur B. Heaton (1875 – 1951)

Made significant contributions to Washington metropolitan regional architecture

Designed numerous apartment buildings, private homes for prominent individuals, public buildings

Supervising architect for the construction of the Washington Cathedral, c.1908 - c.1922

Favored Colonial Revival styles

Arthur Heaton's National Register Projects

Augusta Apartments
(1900)

Photo: DC Preservation

Babcock-Macomb House
(1912)

Photo: Wikimedia Commons, User: AgnosticPreachersKid

Bunker Hill Elementary School
(1939-1953)

Photo: National Register

17 Primrose Street
as featured in American Architect,
1911.

Governor's Consulting Committee Recommendation

The proposed Charles F.R. Ogilby House nomination is eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places as locally significant under Criterion C: embodying the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction.

Staff Recommendation

The proposed Charles F.R. Ogilby House nomination is eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places as locally significant under Criterion C: embodying the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction.